

Technical program for the Scientific Symposium

200 years of tide-gauge measurements in Świnoujście

to be held at Świnoujście, Poland on November 18, 2011

Venue: Akademia Morska w Szczecinie (the Maritime University Szczecin),
Dom Pracy Twórczej,
Komandorska St. 5, 72-600 Świnoujście

Program:

Nov. 17, 2011: Arrival of foreign guests
19:00 Joint dinner

Nov. 18, 2011

09:00, Opening (Prof. Dr. A. Witkowski, University of Szczecin, Janusz Żmurkiewicz - Mayor of Świnoujście, Olgierd Geblewicz - Marshall of the Province Western Pomerania, Prof. Dr. J. Sündermann, University of Hamburg)

Music

09:30, Halina Kowalewska-Kalkowska / Roman Marks, Szczecin:
"200 years of sea level measurements at the Świnoujście tide gauge - an unique opportunity to study sea level variability at a regional scale"

Music

10:15, Coffee

11:00, R. Dietrich, Dresden: "200 years of sea level records in Świnoujście: From history to present-day research"

11:30, H.v. Storch, Geesthacht: "Relevance of long term observatories such as the tide gauge in Swinoujscie"

12:00, S. Massel, Gdansk: "Surface waves as an important factor in the atmosphere-sea interaction processes in the Baltic"

12:30, lunch

14:00, excursion to the Świnoujście gauge measurement system

15:30, departure of participants

The symposium will be combined with a workshop to be held on November 17, 2011, at Świnoujście within the frame of the Polish-German co-operation in coastal research supported by the Polish Academy of Sciences and the German Research Foundation (DFG).