

THE EFFECTS OF CLIMATE AND CLIMATE CHANGE ON SOCIETY

A workshop by the Centre of Coastal Research, GKSS, and the Research unit Sustainability and Global Change, Centre for Marine and Climate Research, Hamburg
University

Time: Thursday, April 3, 13:00 – Friday, April 4, 15:30

Location: Room 6516, Troplowitzstrasse 7

Speakers have 30 min, plus 30 min discussion

Thursday

12:55            Opening by Hans von Storch

13:00-13:50    “Heat or Light: The Grand Narrative of Climate” by Nico Stehr and Reiner Grundmann

13:50-14:40    “Climate, change and welfare” by David Maddison

14:40-15:10 Break

15:10-16:00    “Climate, change, and health” by Pim Martens

16:00-16:50    “Climate, growth, and health” by Richard Tol

16:50-17:40    “Socio-Cultural Determinism: The Key to Modern Social Science's Aversion to Environmental Phenomena“ by Riley E. Dunlap

Friday

09:00-10:00 “Multi-actor modelling of climate adaptation and mitigation strategies of climate change” by Klaus Hasselmann

10:00-11:00    “Climate, Change and Stakeholders” by Dennis Bray

11:00-11:30    Break

11:30-12:30    “Climate change and the agricultural revolution” by Kai Wirtz

12:30-13:30    Lunch

13:30-14:30    “Using Economic Innovation for Mitigation of Global Climate Change - some thoughts” by Wolf Grossmann

14:30-15:30    “The case of Eduard Brückner – solid climate research but unexpected social and technological developments” by Hans von Storch